CUBANS MAINTAIN GUARD

Washington Keeps Close Watch on Situation Despite Ambassador's Report.

By The Associated Press

CHAPARRA, Cuba, Sept. 25 — American officials of the Chaparra sugar mill sought safety today in the Yacht club near the American destroyer Hamilton and a British freighter anchored in Puerto Padre bay, as a general strike spread through most of Oriente province. A small party of United States marines landed Sunday at Puerto Padre to obtain supplies, and thereafter returned to the destroyer. Workers and soldiers stood guard at the Chaparra and Delicias mills and other properties, and there was no violence, but strikers cut wires of the Chaparra Light and Power Co., plunging more than 10 towns into darkness. The communities were without water and rail service, and food supplies dwindled alarmingly. The Americans at the Yacht club included Ralph B. Wood of New Orleans, a former Tulane university football player, who is manager of the Chaparra mill; his assistant, Hunter M. Hicks of Ohio; Chief Engineer William Glathe of New York; Administrative Secretary A. R. Wood of Maywood, Mo., and his Cuban wife and two children. With them was the chief of the commercial department, George Gray, a Chilean.

Roosevelt Evolves New Credit Plan

Details of President's Idea To Aid Recovery Not Revealed.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 — A new idea today formulated President Roosevelt's campaign to provide needed credit to NRA industries and take the farmers in come to the price level of the things he must have. It was evolved at a White House conference attended by Mr. Roosevelt's financial advisers, but none would disclose the elements of the plans agreed upon. Secretaries Woodin, Wallace, and Attorney General Cummings headed the group that reported to the President's study last night. Exchanged notes, and then worked out the new line of attack. With the increase in farm prices lagging still behind the cost of commodities the farmer must have. It was indicated that methods of releasing funds in the closed state and national banks of rural communities furnished an important topic of the White House discussion. More Loans Sought Behind this lay the weeks-old problem of inducing the banks to extend loans to commercial enterprises operating under the blue eagle. The whole subject was reviewed in detail with the President today. The administration, in effect, today told the bankers that the government's billions were ready to help banks give the industries of the country the credit needed to increase employment. It was learned authoritatively that the late night gathering discussed at length the coordination of four prime federal agencies into a systematic plan intended to release deposits tied up in closed banks and place banks already operating upon a sound basis. Under this scheme the RFC would rehabilitate a bank's capital structure by purchasing new issues of preferred stock; the farm credit and home loan administration would replace slow real estate mortgage assets with their readily saleable bonds, and the deposit guaranty corporation would guarantee the funds of new depositors. Meanwhile, the public works administration, promising renewed

The Star's Annual School Will Be Held Next Week

Mrs. Ruth Campbell Will Return This Year To Lecture To Marion Women.

Next week beginning Tuesday afternoon one of the most interesting and valuable homemaking schools ever planned will be offered the women readers of The Marion Star in the Star auditorium. The school is a week of events for women, young and old, middle-aged or brides, for mothers of grown-up families, for every woman who cooks, who wants to learn to cook, who must plan meals for a family of two or 10 or more. It will be a week of news from every corner of the country on what is new in cookery and homemaking told superbly in a model kitchen established on the stage of the auditorium. Women who attended the school last year will be delighted to know the instructor this year is to be Mrs. Ruth Campbell whose four-day course last year was such a success. Newcomers to the school are assured of a treat in store for them in meeting her for the first time this year. Model Kitchen In the model kitchen, the highlights of the cooking lessons will be demonstrated, homemaking news will be told by Mrs. Campbell, an expert of national reputation, and best of all the entire series of events, this year, as formerly, will be free to the women of Marion and vicinity. The daily class sessions will include discussions of new food products, new ideas for serving, entertaining, planning menus and special occasions. Special programs will be prepared for each day and many of the dishes will be prepared and cooked right on the platform. All Invited Mrs. Campbell, in planning the cooking school with The Marion Star, has urged that an invitation be extended broadly to every woman. Her work in the past has shown her the importance of economical planning and cookery, of buying not only of foods but in home furnishings as well. These subjects as well as new ideas in entertaining will be important parts of the daily program. "We could do no better than to pattern our behavior after that of the first lady of the land, Mrs. Roosevelt," said Mrs. Campbell in discussing her school. "Simple meals, carefully planned and well cooked are the fare at the White House. Why not make them the rule in our own homes? Not only because such meals are more economical, easier to plan and cook and serve, but because simple cookery is the best for all of us, and incidentally smarter this year."

Welles Reports Cuban Conditions Quieter

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 — Cuban trouble zones threatening danger to United States citizens kept state department officials on the alert today, though late reports indicated somewhat quieter conditions. Ambassador Sumner Welles telephoned the department that the violence and unrest of recent hours had lessened in some sections last night, but he reported simultaneously the storming of mine property near Cristo by 150 men who shot guns into the air. Troops were called out to quell the disturbance. Along the coast, a number of Americans were reported ready to flee in small boats to the nearest islands. Commanders of these naval vessels were authorized to land armed forces to protect lives without the delay of first consulting higher authorities. Manzanillo and Cienfuegos, off which American destroyers floated, were two Cuban points where Welles reported conditions improved. He said too that Santa Clara was quiet and no trouble was expected from a scheduled communist demonstration at Banos.

Leader of Cuban Rebels To Give Up

By The Associated Press

HAVANA, Sept. 25 — Still deadlocked with his political opponents, the government of Ramon Grau San Martin awaited the arrival of the rebel leader, Juan Blas Hernandez, who was expected to surrender himself to officials. Dispatched from Camaguey said Blas Hernandez, who last week was reported up in arms against the government, left for Havana, saying he would appear before the army general staff. At Santa Clara, however, his eldest son, taken prisoner two days ago, said his father had never rebelled but had taken the field to settle labor unrest. Government troops had pursued and fired on him, the son maintained, and Blas' forces scattered to avoid conflict. A six-hour conference between factions supporting and opposing the government broke up late last night without an agreement, although the conferees continued to express optimism.

Woman Aids in Holdup of Shoe Store in Ocoola

Special to The Star

BUCKYRUS, Sept. 25 A woman and two men held up and robbed the Gehke Shoe Co. at Ocoola, east of here, and two of its customers, Saturday night at 8, and escaped with a fairly large sum of cash. The woman, armed with a rifle, and one of the men carrying a revolver, entered the store and lined Mr. and Mrs. Gehke, a clerk and two customers, against the wall. The purses of the customers were robbed, one of $7, and the money till was emptied by the men, while the woman trained the rifle on the five persons. Mr. Gehke, owner of the store, today was unable to say how much money was taken from the till. He said that it would take several days of checking of his stock. It is believed that the amount was fairly large, for the store, known throughout central Ohio as the Ocoola Shoe store, had had a fairly big day's business. The five were marched out into the street and about 100 feet away to keep them from telephone communication with the police, until the robbers made their getaway in a small car driven by the third man. The sheriff and police were called a short time later. Sheriff Arthur Stuckert would not disclose a description of the robbers today. Local Horseman Released on Own Recognizance, Sheriff Fye Reports.

John Harriman, horse trader who was arrested Wednesday morning with L. L. Allen of La Rue, was not placed in jail following his arrest but was released on his own recognizance. Sheriff Fye said that Harriman had called on him to get a statement in Thursday's edition of The Star.

Harriman had spent the night in jail. Through a misunderstanding, The Star was informed that Harriman had been placed in jail.

Sheriff Fye and Harriman were released without bond after he had asserted that Allen, charged with running from the county two race horses and other property on which officers had levied to satisfy debt claims, had told him the debt claims had been settled.

Both Allen and Harriman were arrested at Bellefontaine last Wednesday and brought here to face contempt charges. They are awaiting hearing Oct. 20.

Danner Garage Equipped for Service

OSMUN DOES GOOD ELECTRICAL WORK

AUTOISTS GET QUICK REPAIRS

Skilled Mechanics Do All Of Work at Moderate Expense.

A repair is one of those services that are not easily estimated in value. Sometimes what appears to be a little thing may be found to be a rather serious when the trouble is traced to the garage mechanic.

If the repair is necessary and the work can be done at once, the owner wants it, but there have been instances where very trivial repairs were made the basis for a big bill. That is one of the many reasons why drivers should know something about the garage to which they entrust their repairs.

They should select one that can be depended upon not only for skill but also for square treatment.

Maybe because of this square treatment, among other reasons, the repair business of The Danner Buick Co., at 245 North Main street, has grown to such large proportions. Patrons who know what has been done for them spread the word to their friends.

These are so well treated that they become boosters also. Here you will find competent mechanics, proper equipment and the spirit of service. You will be able to get your work done without the time-wasting efforts of fellows who do not know how to do a feature on which motorists spend many a dollar.

You will find your work undertaken with system, prosecuted with dispatch and billed with reason. A pretty good combination to be sure.

Motor work, battery attention, body and body work—all of the things you need to put the car into perfect working order—can be done here and done every week for less than a satisfied people so the list of pleased owners is growing larger every day.

Motor work with a competent mechanic has proved a mighty combination in this establishment, and you will find it worth trying in this combination.

CHEVROLET DRIVEN IN TEST RUN HERE

Daredevil Dolan Impressed With Car's Qualities on Long Drive.

Additional proof of Chevrolet supremacy in its field was provided in Marion recently when Daredevil Dolan drove one of the Haberman Chevrolet cars for 101 continuous hours, covering a distance of 969.4 miles. The run was made over the streets of Marion and at least 50 per cent of the driving was done in low and second gears. The only repair necessary was the replacement of one spark plug.

The Chevrolet averaged 15.7 miles a gallon in gasoline consumption, a very good figure considering the amount of driving in low and second gears.

Dolan was impressed by the easy driving qualities of the car and praised the run without any leg or back aches, commonly associated with long drives. The Fisher No Draft Ventilator supplied him with plenty of fresh air without drafts.

The long driving period was made much more pleasant with the Chevrolet radio supplying Dolan with programs at any hour of the day and night from stations across the United States.

The car driven by Dolan was a new Chevrolet master sedan from the stock room of the Haberman Chevrolet company.

SAVINGS ARE MADE IN REPAIR OF SHOES

No one would think of driving an automobile until it is worn out without ever having it overhauled or repaired in order to prolong its life. Yet, some folks pay good money for shoes and then wear them until they have lost their shape entirely without having them repaired. It seems foolish, but hundreds of folks right here in Marion are spending more money than necessary for shoes every year just because they don't take them to a good repair shop before it is "too late."

One of the best places in the city to have your shoes repaired is the Nu-Way Shoe Repair at 125 West Center street. They have modern electric equipment for turning out the work promptly and you will be surprised how quickly he can put on new half soles and heels. With new leather under your feet, you can enjoy all the comfort of an old pair of shoes combined with the attractive appearance of a new pair.

You can leave your shoes with them on the way to the office in the morning and they will be ready for you to pick up on the way home or if you prefer, he can fix them while you wait.

ALL DRAFTS ARE NOW ELIMINATED SEARCH IS MADE FOR TWO BANDITS

The most modern of vehicles are all designed to cut down resistance to travel, whether on land, in the air, or by water. And the most modern cars and planes are both additionally equipped with means of controlling ventilation as the individual wish of the passenger dictates.

Shown in the illustration is a Buick sedan, with its occupant holding a cigarette that is protected by the Fisher No Draft Ventilator. He can smoke in perfect comfort, even when the car stands in the air stream from an airplane propeller. The gentleman at the left is taking the air and having a hard time preserving his balance. If he had stayed in the plane, he would have been more comfortable.

Replating Will Preserve That Valued Silverware

Many would find it profitable and interesting to spend a few minutes at the Marion Plating & Polishing Works at the rear of 146 North State street. Few of us know just how the silver is put on our dinnerware, watch chains or other every day used pieces.

There is in nearly every home pieces of silverware that are cherished pieces which have become worn so they are hidden from view but carefully guarded just the same. Maybe they are pieces received as wedding gifts, maybe handed down from a great, great grandmother, but unthoughtfully now.

These pieces can be replated and polished, made to be as attractive as when new, and at a very small cost.

A visit to this unusual shop will be interesting. See just how this is done, you will soon be convinced you can trust those precious pieces to their skill and then enjoy them the more.

Not only silver plating is done but copper, nickel and chromium as well.

The electric fixtures, the plumbing faucets, any plated article can be made like new at a very little cost.

Used Parts Service Saving To Many Motorists of Day

Towed into Marion a few days ago from about four miles out, a motorist from another state found himself in a bad predicament. He had stripped a gear. Ordinarily that would not have meant much, but this man had a good car of a discontinued make—one of the many that have been built in various parts of the country, but which have not been able to compete with the big fellows.

No local garage represented this line of cars so far as any one was able to find out that gear had to come from Chicago. It meant that the car must be left in Marion for at least a week while the parts were on the road and being installed. So on his journey and come back later for his car. Aside from the inconvenience, the expense of four people traveling a long distance by rail was no jest.

Somebody's loved he call up the Marion Iron & Metal Co. on the chance that they might have the part, with the result it was found, and he soon was on his way, actually saving considerable in the cost of this used part under a new one.

That same service can be done for you in the case of a breakdown. It must indeed be a rare part that the company can not find in its warehouse. Every day sees some motorist availing himself of this service.
